Conditions of Sale

All bids are to be PER LOT as numbered in the catalogue.

The highest bidder to be the buyer. In all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims, and his decision shall be final.

Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately after the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address. ¶ A deposit at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required. ¶ If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and resold.

Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's risk, and neither the owner nor the Company is responsible for the loss of, or any damage to any article by theft, fire, breakage, however occasioned, or any other cause whatsoever.

Articles not paid for in full and not called for by the purchaser by noon of the day following that of the sale may be turned over by the Company to some carter to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage and any other charges will be charged against the purchaser, and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser. ¶ In any instance where the bill has not been paid in full by noon of the day following that of the sale, the Company reserves the right, any other stipulation in these conditions of sale to the contrary notwithstanding, in respect to any or all lots included in the bill, at its option, either to cancel the sale thereof or to resell the same at public or private sale without further notice for the account of the buyer and to hold the buyer responsible for any deficiency sustained in so doing.

[B]

Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, owners reserve the right to bid.

[8]

All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good SECOND-HAND condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule. Magazines and other periodicals, and all miscellaneous books arranged in parcels, are sold as they are, WITHOUT RE COURSE. ¶ All Autograph Letters, Documents, Manuscripts and Bindings are sold as they are, without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but neither the owner nor the Company will be responsible for errors, omissions or defects of any kind.

[9]

Buying or bidding by the Company for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph, or telephone, if conditions permit, will be faithfully attended to without charge. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale. Orders for execution by the Company should be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Company, a deposit must be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

[10]

All articles sold will be subject, in addition to the purchase price, to the New York City Sales Tax to be paid by the purchaser, unless the purchaser delivers to the Company the requisite certificate that the article was purchased for re-sale.

[11]

The Company will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

[ THESE CONDITIONS OF SALE CANNOT BE ALTERED ]
EXCEPT BY AN OFFICER OF THE COMPANY ]

FIRST EDITION OF "THE BOOK OF JOB"

49. BLAKE (WILLIAM). Illustrations of the Book of Job. Decorative title-page and 21 plates designed and engraved by William Blake; slightly foxed. Folio, ORIGINAL WRAPPERS, cloth back, PAPER LABEL ON SIDE; covers very slightly soiled. London, 1825

FIRST EDITION OF BLAKE'S FAMOUS ILLUSTRATIONS FOR THE BOOK OF JOB. Each plate is engraved "Proof" in the lower right corner and each, including the title-page, bears the following imprint: "London Published as the Act directs March 8: 1825 by William Blake No 3 Fountain Court Strand" (except plate I, which is misdated "1828").

The plates in this copy are not watermarked.

AN ENTIRELY UNCUT COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION

50. BLAKE ILLUSTRATIONS. YOUNG (EDWARD). The Complaint, and the Consolation; or, Night Thoughts. 43 engravings designed and executed by William Blake. Folio, contemporary boards, russia back and corners, entirely UNCUT; very slightly rubbed. London, 1797

FIRST EDITION WITH BLAKE'S ENGRAVINGS. AN UNCUT COPY; printed on paper watermarked "1794 J. Whatman". Most of the plates extend to the full size of the leaf, so that it is only in uncut copies such as the present one that the plates are found intact; in some a very slight portion of the outer edge of a few designs has not been printed at all.

The rare leaf "Explanation of the Engravings" is present in this copy; the margins are slightly torn.

From the library of Joseph Marryat, with bookplate.

FROM THE LIBRARY OF EDWARD GWYNN

69. BOSSUS (MATTHAEUS). Recuperationes Faesulanae. 184 leaves, roman type, 35 lines to a page, capital spaces; four lines on the recto of a.iii printed in red. 4to, full early seventeenth century calf, gilt tooled back, triple blind fillet borders on sides name EDWARD GWYNN stamped on upper centre of front cover and initials E G on centre of back cover; worn, early manuscript notes on several leaves, particularly in the first part, an unsuccessful ful attempt has been made to remove some of the notes, chemically and by erasure, tears at inner margins of a few leaves, portion of lower half of last leaf replaced, several words damaged.

Bologna: Franciscus (Plato) de Benedictis, 1493

SECOND EDITION. WITH A MOST INTERESTING PROVENANCE. There are two contemporary names on the title-page, one in Greek (possibly Richard Bardney) the other "Stephanus Baluzius". The upper half of a third name appears on the last leaf. The binding bears the familiar gilt stamped name and initials of Edward Gwynn [for a very interesting account of Edward Gwynn by William A. Jackson see "The Library", Vol. 15, No. 1, pp. 92-6]. The inside front cover bears the shelf-marks of the Earl of Sunderland and beneath them the shelf-marks of the Duke of Marlborough. The title-page shows the signature of E. W. Skinner, with the date 1892, and his name without the date is on the fly-leaf. On the same leaf is the signature of Joseph Knight, whose bookplate is pasted down on the inside front cover.

AN EXTRAORDINARILY LARGE COPY OF THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION OF "DORANDO"

70. [BOSWELL (JAMES).] Dorando, A Spanish Tale. 8vo, half blue morocco, gilt top, UNCUT; half-title very slightly frayed at lateral edge, portion of the margin of one page of text supplied, just touching one letter. London: Printed for J. Wilkie, 1767

AN UNCUT COPY OF THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, in octavo size. The second issue was in quarto.

APPARENTLY THE FIRST COPY TO APPEAR AT PUBLIC SALE IN THIS COUNTRY. AN EXTRAORDINARILY TALL COPY, measuring 8 $\frac{1}{2}$  by 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

The measurements of the copy in the British Museum are 7 $\frac{3}{4}$  by 4 $\frac{7}{8}$  inches; a copy sold by Messrs. Sotheby & Co. on November 9, 1931, shows the following measurements: 7 $\frac{3}{4}$  by 4 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches.

The renowned Johnsonian library of Mr. R. B. Adam does not contain a copy of this edition.

This work, although displaying the London imprint on the title-page, was printed at the Foulis Press in Glasgow. In fear of prosecution for contempt of court for printing this romance, which was founded on the famous Douglas Cause, the publishers issued the work with the London imprint.

On p. 29, the third line from the bottom, the name "Pedro" has been inserted in ink in Boswell's autograph.

The final blank leaf has not been preserved in this copy.

Pasted down on the inner side of the front cover is a clipping from a catalogue listing the present work and others by Boswell. On the same cover Mr. Miller has inscribed a note in reference to the work. Also on the inner side of the back cover Mr. Miller has inscribed his name and place of residence.

71. —— The Journal of a Tour to the Hebrides, with Samuel Johnson, LL.D. 8vo, new boards, paper back; hinges cracked, label lacking, a few marginal defects, one corner slightly worn.

London, 1785

AN UNCUT COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION, ENTIRELY UNCUT. A TALL COPY, MEASURING 9 by 5½ inches. With the leaf of errata at the end.

Leaf I<sub>5</sub> (pp. 121-2) is in the first state, with the misprint "in-induced" on p. 121, lines 3-4 from the bottom. M<sub>4</sub> (pp. 167-8) and E<sub>3</sub> and E<sub>4</sub> (53-6) are cancelled leaves.

On the inner side of the back cover Mr. Miller has inscribed his name and place of residence; this inscription has been covered with the end-paper.

72. —— Life of Johnson. Edited by George Birkbeck Hill. Illustrations. 6 vols., royal 8vo, cloth, calf backs, gilt tops, uncut; backs faded.

New York, 1889

94. CAMPBELL (THOMAS). The Poetical Works of Thomas Campbell. Engraved portrait frontispiece and numerous exquisite engraved vignettes in the text. 8vo, full brown crushed levant morocco, back gilt tooled with inlays of red and green morocco flowers, front cover with gilt tooled border, panel, and leafy sprays and inlays of conventional floral border design in red, two shades of green, and yellow morocco, back cover with gilt and blind tooled borders and corner decorations of inlaid flowers in green and red moroccos, wide inner borders inlaid with green and red ribbon borders, gilt fillet borders and a gilt decoration at each corner, doublures and fly-leaves of green silk moire, gauffered gilt edges as described below. Enclosed in a cloth folding box.

London, 1837

A PARTICULARLY HANDSOME COPY, WITH THE CHARMING VIGNETTES ENTIRELY FREE FROM FOXING. Finely bound by FAZAKERLY, with the gilt edges delicately gauffered in a Grolieresque ribbon and floral design, and with the fore-edge (when closed) decorated with three watercolor miniatures. The upper miniature is a charming, glowing view of the Rhone and the Swiss mountains; the central one is a view from the sea of Sicily and Mt. Etna, with a ship in the foreground; and the lower one is a lovely moonlight view of the Rhine and the Drachenfels. A contemporary inscription has been removed from the half-title with chemicals.

95. CAREW (THOMAS). Poems. Small 8vo, full crimson crushed levant morocco, inner borders gilt tooled, gilt edges, by RIVIERE. London: Printed by I.D. for Thomas Walkley, 1640

FIRST EDITION. Leaf 08 bears the title-page of "Coelum Britannicum", also dated 1640, and the text follows with both continuous pagination and signatures. At the end is the notice about "The Songs and Dialogues". There are two states of this leaf, one with the reading "apt tunes" and the other (as in the present copy) showing "apt Tunes". It is interesting to note that the second edition (1642) reads "apt Tunes".

There are two other interesting variations in the present copy which do not seem to have been described before. In the present copy the word "Poems" on the title-page is followed by a period; other copies show the word followed by a comma. The errata leaf following the title-leaf shows two interesting changes; one displays "Errates" and six lines of errors, the other shows "Errata" and seven lines of errors. The present copy is of the latter variety, and the leaf is slightly shorter than the rest of the book.

From the library of G. Walter Steeves, with bookplate.

96. CARROLL (LEWIS). Through the Looking-Glass, and what Alice Found there. With 50 illustrations by John Tenniel. Two copies, 12mo, original red and green cloth; somewhat worn.

IN A RICHLY ORNAMENTED STUART BINDING

131. COLLIER (JEREMY). Essays upon several Moral Subjects. 8vo, full dark green seventeenth century morocco, ornamented as described below; some leaves stained. Enclosed in a green cloth folding box. London, 1697

SECOND EDITION. IN A BEAUTIFUL CONTEMPORARY BINDING, RICHLY ORNAMENTED WITH GILT TOOLING, RED MOROCCO ONLAYS, AND SILVER PAINT. The back, divided by the bands into six compartments, is decorated with three designs, two panels onlaid with red morocco flowers and delicately gilt tooled, two gilt tooled with quatrefoil designs painted silver, and two gilt tooled with larger quatrefoil floral designs; the sides are exquisitely decorated with floral running borders enclosing four rectangular panel borders, each containing in the centre an onlaid red morocco tulip, gilt tooled, with stems, leaves, and gilt circles; at the ends of each panel are rectangular and right-angled designs composed of fillet and pointillé scrolls, the centre panel of each cover showing an elaborately gilt tooled centrepiece of floral design and similar corner ornaments, the intervening spaces bearing pointillé circles filled with silver paint; narrow inner borders delicately gilt tooled; edges gilt; fore-edge bears designs in black (faded to brown) ink and yellow paint, the four end designs of floral patterns, the centre a wreath enclosing the initials "K. D.", and the spaces occupied by birds and butterflies.

THE PRESENT VOLUME WAS PROBABLY BOUND EITHER IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF CHARLES MEARNE, THE ROYAL BINDER, OR IN ONE OF THE BINDERIES TO WHICH HE SENT WORK. Both Charles and Samuel Mearne were in the habit of sending their most elaborate work to small binderies for finishing, and many of the handsomest examples which have come to us from the Stuart period are those finished in the little unknown shops.

From the library of John Whitelock, with bookplate. The signature of "J. W. Rimington" appears at the top of the bookplate, while the title-page bears the signature of Francis Christie and the date 1819.

132. COLOPHON (THE). The Colophon: A Book Collector's Quarterly. Illustrated. 16 issues, 4to, original boards, uncut. The first eight parts are enclosed in two half pigskin slip cases.

153. — Our Mutual Friend. Illustrated by Marcus Stone. 20 parts in 19, 8vo, original green wrappers; some wrappers slightly chipped, some repaired. Enclosed in a green cloth solander case.

London, 1864-5

FIRST EDITION. IN THE ORIGINAL PARTS. The present work compares exceedingly well with the collation set out by Hatton and Cleaver in their "Bibliography of the Periodical Works of Charles Dickens", London, 1933. Parts IV, V, VI, VIII, X, XII, XIII, XIV, XV, XVI, XVIII, and XIX-XX agree in every particular. Part I has a variant advertisement unmentioned by Hatton and Cleaver, being Fry's Homoeopathic Cocoa on lemon paper; the same advertisement appears in the second part also. Part II lacks the slip for the "Fisherman's Magazine", Parts VII and IX each lack an advertisement; the Chapman and Hall advertisement in Part III is the same as that in Part I, dated April 30, 1864; there are two copies of the second advertisement in Part X; the advertiser is not present in Part XI, but as a filler two advertisements (the fourth and the sixth) from Part IX have been inserted; one leaf of the advertiser is missing from Part XVII.

154. — Mr. Nightingale's Diary: A Farce in One Act. 24mo, original green cloth.

Boston, 1877

FIRST AMERICAN EDITION. A BEAUTIFUL COPY. This farce was privately printed for Dickens in 1851, but only four copies of this earliest issue are known. The present edition is the next publication; the original pamphlet from which it was printed is said to have been destroyed by fire in 1879.

155. — American Notes, 1842 ♦ Change for the American Notes, 1843 ♦ The Chimes [1845] ♦ The Cricket on the Hearth, 1846 ♦ The Battle of Life, 1847 ♦ The Haunted Man [1849]. Together 6 vols., 12mo and 8vo, original wrappers. Each enclosed in a cloth slip case.

New York, 1842[-9]

FIRST AND EARLY AMERICAN EDITIONS.

FIRST EDITION. A FINE COPY.

297. —— Our Hundred Days in Europe. 12mo, original green cloth. Boston, 1887

FIRST EDITION. WITH THE FOLLOWING AUTOGRAPH STANZA OF EIGHT LINES ON THE FRONT FLY-LEAF:

*"Hugged in the clinging billow's clasp
From seaweed fringe to mountain heather,
The British oak with rooted grasp
Her slender handful holds together;—
With cliffs of white and bower of green,
And Ocean narrowing to caress her,—
And hills and threaded streams between—
Our little Mother isle, God bless her!"*

*"Oliver Wendell Holmes,
Beverly Farms, Mass.
October 13th 1887."*

Inserted at the front of the volume is an autograph manuscript poem by Thomas Bailey Aldrich, signed. The poem, entitled "The Sailing of the Autocrat", comprises three stanzas, thirty-two lines in all, written on two 8vo pages. It begins as follows:

*"O Wind and Wave, be kind to him!
So, Wave and Wind, we give thee thanks!
O Fog, that from Newfoundland Banks
Makest the blue bright ocean dim,
Delay him not! And ye who snare
The wayworn shipman with your song,
Go pipe your ditties otherwhere."*

At the end of the poem, Aldrich has inscribed: "Copied for Mr. DeWitt Miller. Ponkapog, Mass. Aug. 1, 1893."

Pasted down on the inner side of the covers is an illustration, "The Sailing of the Autocrat", cut from a periodical. Also pasted down on an end-paper is a printed version of Aldrich's poem quoted above.

On the end-paper at the back Mr. Miller has inscribed his name and place of residence.

ALL FIRST EDITIONS except the last work listed. ALL LIMITED EDITIONS, each signed by the author.

409. [MCLEAN (SARAH P.).] Cape Cod Folks. A Novel. Frontispiece. 12mo, original brown pictorial cloth; some pages slightly foxed, 3 small pieces of paper pasted down on the inner side of the back cover. Boston, 1881

FIRST EDITION. With the exception of the slight defects noted above, A FINE COPY OF THIS RARE WORK.

Laid in is a small 4to sheet of paper displaying a number of names of characters in the book, in the autograph of the author.

On the final page of advertisements Mr. Miller has inscribed his name and place of residence.

410. MEDALLIONS. The Circle of Friends of the Medallion. Bronze medallions. 12 vols., 8vo, cloth. [New York, 1899-1915] Each volume has a fine bronze medallion inserted in a heavy mat. These medallions are by John Flanagan, V. D. Brenner, J. E. Roiné, Paul Manship, and others.

411. MEIER-GRAEFE (JULIUS). Modern Art: Being a contribution to a new system of aesthetics. From the German by Florence Simmonds and George W. Chrystal. Illustrated. 2 vols., imp. 8vo, original cloth, gilt top. New York, 1908
AN IMPORTANT WORK.

412. MELVILLE (HERMAN). Moby-Dick; or, The Whale. Thick 12mo, ORIGINAL PLUM CLOTH; name on front fly-leaf, lightly foxed, back faded. New York, 1851
FIRST EDITION. A VERY INTERESTING COPY, IN AN APPARENTLY HITHERTO UNDESCRIBED VARIANT BINDING. The grain of the cloth is the same as the usual light gray-blue cloth, but instead of running straight up and down the cloth of the present copy is cut on the bias. The familiar circular design is not present on either cover, but on each cover there is embossed a wide arabesque scroll border. The back is stamped in gilt in the usual manner. The end-papers in this work are found in three variant shades, orange or terra cotta marbled, and white. In the present copy the end-papers are white. On the back end-paper Mr. Miller has inscribed his name and place of residence.

On the inner side of the back cover Mr. Miller has inscribed his name and place of residence.

Books, Autographic Material, the Guest Book and Other Mementos from the James Whitcomb Riley Homestead at Greenfield, Indiana

THE following forty-six lots [Numbers 458-503] comprise a group of First Editions of the writings of James Whitcomb Riley and a few other authors, nearly all of which bear autograph presentation inscriptions by Riley to his brother John A. Riley; also a number of intimate Riley mementos. Many of the books were apparently presented on their publication days or shortly thereafter, for their inscriptions antedate the imprint. Included is the poet's first book, "The Old Swimmin'-hole", also the guest book used at his old home, with many signatures and comments of guests and friends; autographic material by Riley, photographs of him, the guitar used by him during his medicine show days, his walking stick and pens, monogrammed dishes, and other material from Riley's old home at Greenfield, Indiana.

Sold by order of Mrs. Mary B. Hayes, Greenfield, Indiana.

NUMBERS 458-503

To his brother John A. Riley. About 475 words; torn in folds.
With envelope, loose.

A FINE AND INTERESTING LETTER REFERRING TO RILEY'S FIRST BOOK, "The Old Swimmin'-hole", and also mentioning a lecture tour, Joel Chandler Harris, etc.

"... As to the little book, it has been signally successful, so far, and will go through more than one edition, the second already arranged for—a scheme in which I have no investment but consent to the further publication, receiving for same the very liberal royalty of twenty cents on every volume sold—and if this sort o' thing keeps up, I'll soon be able to work more leisurely, and with less fever and more health evident in all that I produce . . ."

6. [—] Guest Book from the Riley Home. Oblong 4to, full morocco, gilt edges; slightly rubbed.

A UNIQUE MEMENTO FROM THE OLD HOMESTEAD OF JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY. In this book was kept entries by special guests and friends of the family, and it also contains records of a number of dinner parties which the poet and his friends attended.

The first signature is that of Riley himself; this and another one farther on in the book were written after the poet's paralytic stroke, and are probably two of the last written by him.

Among the other autographs is one by Mrs. John W. Gray, the original "Little Orphant Annie", A RARE AUTOGRAPH; Bliss Carman; Meredith Nicholson; Eugene V. Debs; Marcus Dicky (Riley's biographer); and many others. After most of the signatures is a comment by the signer. Tipped in it is a photograph taken in front of the homestead, showing Mrs. John W. Gray, Julia W. Riley, and others.

7. — THREE AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT POEMS, comprising: "To the first Fly", written on one sheet, 12mo; about 110 words ♦ "O Yes he Would", written on one sheet, 12mo, two stanzas; about 80 words ♦ Manuscript beginning "Onc't when Little Orphan Annie", written on one sheet, imp. 8vo; about 100 words. All unsigned and in pencil; one torn in fold.

8. — Two "Blotograms" executed by James Whitcomb Riley. Each measuring 4 $\frac{1}{8}$  by 3 inches. In two frames.

TWO VERY RARE PIECES. These specimens show Riley's humor in the form of "blotograms", designs formed by dropping a blot of ink on a piece of paper folded in the middle, which is then pressed, dried, and the design outlined by pen. The first has the finest and probably the smallest known autograph signature by Riley. Below this is the following quotation from Robert Burns, also in Riley's hand:

"Yestreen when to the trembling string
The dance gaed thro' the lighted ha.
Burns".

The "blotogram" depicts two fairies dancing back to back.

The second "blotogram" forms what is no doubt the RAREST RILEY AUTOGRAPH KNOWN, namely, his signature written on a piece of paper folded in the middle so as to form a "blotogram", then outlined in ink and inscribed at the bottom by the poet as follows: "A Hoosier Sprite".

489. — Green Fields and Running Brooks, Indianapolis, 1893, with a small slip of paper on which Riley has inscribed "Yours truly, James Whitcomb Riley" tipped in at the front of the volume ♦ Nye and Riley's Railway Guide, Chicago, 1888, with Riley's visiting card, on which he has inscribed "With Christmas Greetings of Brer Jim", pasted down on the front end-paper; also inserted is a L. s. by the publishers to John A. Riley, stating that J. W. Riley had requested that the copy be sent with his compliments ♦ Shakespeare in Music (Elson), Boston, 1901, with a miniature on which J. W. Riley has inscribed "To Mr. and Mrs. John A. Riley. From James Whitcomb Riley. 12/25/01", tipped on the front fly-leaf. Together 3 vols., 12mo, original cloth.

ALL FIRST EDITIONS.

490. — Sketches in Prose ♦ Afterwhiles ♦ Pipes O' Pan ♦ Rhymes of Childhood ♦ The Flying Islands of the Night ♦ Green Fields and Running Brooks ♦ Armazindy ♦ A Child-World ♦ Home-Folks. Frontispieces. Together 9 vols., 12mo, green cloth, gilt tops, uncut. Indianapolis, n.d.

GREENFIELD EDITION. On the front end-paper of eight of the volumes is the signature of John A. Riley, brother of James Whitcomb Riley. On a similar leaf in the remaining volume John A. Riley has copied the dedication, reading "To my brother John A. Riley, with many memories of the old Home". All these works were in all probability presented by the author to his brother John.

491. [—] A High-School Dictionary of the English Language. 12mo, cloth, leather back, somewhat worn. New York, 1869.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY'S COPY. THIS DICTIONARY WAS APPARENTLY USED BY RILEY DURING HIS SCHOOL DAYS. On the two fly-leaves at the end he has inscribed in pencil quotations from Cotton, Sucking, Shirley, and others, the whole consisting of about 160 words. He has also written on the margin of two pages of advertisements the following quotations: "A man who would make so vile a pun would not scruple to pick a pocket" and "Immodest words admit of no defence, for want of decency is want of sense". A few newspaper clippings of the period have been pasted down at the front and back of the book.

492. [—] [LORD (WILLIAM S.).] This is for You. Love Poems of the Saner Sort. Selected by William Sinclair Lord. Decorations. 12mo, original boards, parchment back and corners, gilt top, uncut. Chicago, 1902.

FIRST EDITIONS. With a contribution by Riley. PRESENTATION COPY FROM JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY TO HIS SISTER-IN-LAW, with the following autograph inscription on front end-paper: "To Julia Riley, with Christmas greetings From Brother Jim. Christmas of 1902".

493. [—] WELLS (CAROLYN). A Nonsense Anthology. 12mo, original cloth, gilt top, uncut. New York, 1902

FIRST EDITION. PRESENTATION COPY FROM JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY TO HIS BROTHER, with autograph inscription and manuscript on front end-paper: "To John A. Riley, with greetings and love Brer Jim. Christmas of 1902".

Beneath the inscription Riley has written the following verse:

"Far and few, far and few,
Are the lands where the Jumblies live;
Their heads are green and their hands are blue;
And they went to sea in a sieve".

494. [—] NICHOLSON (MEREDITH). Poems. 8vo, original cloth, gilt top, uncut. Indianapolis, n.d.

FIRST EDITION. Dedicated to James Whitcomb Riley. PRESENTATION COPY FROM JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY TO HIS BROTHER, with an autograph inscription on the front fly-leaf: "John A. Riley. With all best love 'f your brother, Jim. Aug. 15, 1907".

Above the inscription Riley has inscribed a nine-line quotation from the poem "The Heart of the Bugle" which appears on p. 46 of the present volume.

495. [—] KIPLING (RUDYARD). Recessional and Other Poems. Portrait. 12mo, original suede calf, gilt top, uncut.

New York: Thomas Y. Crowell and Company, n.d.

PIRATED EDITION. Laid in is a L. s. by the author, 1 p., 4to, Burwash, Sussex, May 26, 1933, to Mrs. Julia W. Riley; marked "Private". This is an important bibliographical letter relating to the present edition, and reads in part as follows: ". . . The book that you mention is not known to me, and sounds to me very like a Pirated Edition, as there is no book published with my authority called 'Recessional and Other Poems', and it cannot be an Author's Edition, because I have never made such an edition . . ." With envelope.

496. — Two Photographs of James Whitcomb Riley. Measuring, respectively, 4 1/4 by 2 1/2 inches and 8 3/4 by 6 3/4 inches.

The first, taken at South Bend, Ind., shows Riley at about the age of 22. On the back the poet has inscribed two humorous notes relating to the portrait, totaling about 50 words; a fine specimen of his early writing.

The other portrait, taken in Indianapolis, displays at the bottom the following AUTOGRAPH PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION FROM RILEY TO HIS BROTHER: "To Jno. A. Riley, from his ever-loving brother. James Whitcomb Riley".

497. — Photograph of James Whitcomb Riley; size, 12 3/4 by 9 1/4 inches ♦ Another similar; size, 11 1/2 by 9 inches. Both framed; very slightly chipped.

Taken when Riley was about forty-two years old, and one of the best photographs of the poet. On the first Riley has autographed the negative so that "Yours truly, James Whitcomb Riley" appears on the print; also pasted down on the lower part of the portrait is a slip of paper displaying the following autographed inscription by Riley: "For Edward Strasburg, Esq. With best greetings. James Whitcomb Riley. Indianapolis, Nov. 16, 1900". On the same part of the other portrait is a similar slip of paper displaying the following autograph inscription by the poet: "Very truly yours, James Whitcomb Riley".

498. — Two mother-of-pearl pens, with gold nibs; in cases.

These pens were used by Riley while he lived in Lockerbie St., Indianapolis, Ind.

RILEY'S LIMOGES CHINA PLATES, SUGAR BOWL AND CREAMER

499. [RILEY (JAMES WHITCOMB).] Limoges China. Comprising, 12 plates, sugar bowl, and creamer. Each with gold trimming and displaying the monogram "JWR"; two of the plates slightly chipped at the outer edge.

FROM THE HOME OF JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY. Inscribed on the back of each plate is the following: "Nellie Millikan Hughes 1913".

RILEY'S WALKING STICK, WITH SILVER CAP

500. [RILEY (JAMES WHITCOMB).] Walking Stick used by James Whitcomb Riley. Cherry wood, length 30½ inches, with silver cap engraved "Riley".

The walking stick is much worn on one side of the ferrule, apparently having been used by Riley when he was quite feeble.

501. —— The Guitar used by Riley in his medicine show days; slightly cracked and warped. In its original canvas case; somewhat worn.

AN INTERESTING MEMENTO OF THE "HOOSIER POET". Riley has carved his initials and the date "1874" on the bottom.

502. —— Three "Blotograms" by Will Vawter. Outlined in ink, and each signed. Measuring, respectively, 5 by 3¾ inches and 3 inches by ½ inch.

From the collection of James Whitcomb Riley.

503. [——] Colored Lithograph entitled "Happy Hours". Size, 23½ by 18½ inches. In an old oak frame.

This picture is accompanied by a manuscript note authenticating the Riley association. The note reads "This picture hung in the children's bed-room (John & Jim's) [John A. and James Whitcomb Riley] and was saved from the fire at the seminary when it burned."

504. [ROGERS (BRUCE).] MONTAIGNE (MICHEL DE). Essays. Done into English by John Florio. [Edited with Bibliography and Notes by George B. Ives.] Woodcut portraits, borders, and initials. 3 vols., folio, boards, cloth backs, uncut.
